

Florida Rural Legal Services is pleased to announce its Executive Director, Jaffe S. Pickett, Esquire, has been selected as one of the nationwide leaders of the National Legal Aid and Defenders Association's first Transformational Leadership Institute.

"I am honored to be selected as a member of the first Transformation Leadership Institute to collaborate with leaders across the nation and to utilize NLADA's equal justice excellence. My selection also means FRLS will receive guidance to improve core competencies to strengthen and expand the organization."
- Jaffe S. Pickett

About NLADA Transformational Leadership Institute (TLI): Transformational Leaders have been selected from the NLADA civil, defender and client community across the country and have a proven leadership track record. Through the Institute, leaders will learn transformational leadership skills through a racial justice lens. NLADA leads a broad network of advocates on the frontlines to advance justice and expand opportunity for all by promoting excellence in the delivery of legal services for people who cannot afford counsel.
